Text: Psalm 142: 1-7

When my spirit faints within me, you know my way! In the path where I walk they have hidden a trap for me. Look to the right and see: there is none who takes notice of me; no refuge remains to me; no one cares for my soul… Attend to my cry, for I am brought very low! Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me! - Psalm 142:3-4, 6 (ESV)

I. David faced the facts

When my spirit faints within me, you know my way! In the path where I walk they have hidden a trap for me. - Psalm 142:3 (ESV)

Look to the right and see: there is none who takes notice of me; no refuge remains to me; no one cares for my soul… - Psalm 142:4 (ESV)

Attend to my cry, for I am brought very low! Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me! - Psalm 142:3-4, 6 (ESV)

Fear and trembling come upon me, and horror overwhelms me. And I say, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest." - Psalm 55:5-6 (ESV)

II. David faced God

With my voice I cry out to the Lord; with my voice I plead for mercy to the Lord. I pour out my complaint before him; I tell my trouble before him… I cry to you, O Lord; I say, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living." - Psalm 142:1-2, 5 (ESV)

III. David faced the future

Bring me out of prison, that I may give thanks to your name! The righteous will surround me, for you will deal bountifully with me. - Psalm 142:7 (ESV)

Bring me out of prison, that I may give thanks to your name! - Psalm 142:7a (ESV)

The righteous will surround me, for you will deal bountifully with me. - Psalm 142:7b (ESV)

(For) I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. - Jeremiah 29:11 (ESV)
