

What Happens To Those Who Never Hear About Jesus?

You Asked For It! - Part 1

June 11 & 12, 2016

Dr. Rex Keener, Senior Pastor

Big Idea: When one responds in faith and obedience to the revelation they've received, we have good biblical precedent to believe God will bring them more revelation.

Text: Selected Scriptures

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— not by works, so that no one can boast. – Ephesians 2:8-9

“I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”
– John 14:6b

Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect. – 1 Peter 3:15b

Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone. – Colossians 4:5-6

“For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.”
– John 3:17-18

I. The so-called “Christian West” is, in many ways, the greatest _____ in the world.

II. God promises that all who seek Him _____.

“Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened.” – Matthew 7:7-8

III. While everyone in the world may not have equal amounts of information about Jesus, _____ _____ to follow whatever measure of information God has given them.

Since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them.
For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse. – Romans 1:19-20

IV. God is a _____.

V. Without exception, the person who asks this question has _____.

MEMORY VERSE

Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason
