Big Idea: We are called by Christ to value people by helping meet legitimate needs.

Text: Luke 13:10-17

I. To value people we need to _____.

On a Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues, and a woman was there who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all. When Jesus saw her, he called her forward and said to her, "Woman, you are set free from your infirmity." – Luke 13:10-12

II. To value people we need to _____.

Then he put his hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and praised God. – Luke 13:13

III. To value people we need to _____ to the real issue.

Indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, the synagogue ruler said to the people, "There are six days for work. So come and be healed on those days, not on the Sabbath." The Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it out to give it water? Then should not this woman, a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has kept bound for eighteen long years, be set free on the Sabbath day from what bound her?" – Luke 13:14-16

IV. To value people we need to _____ who rejoice.

"When he said this all his opponents were humiliated, but the people were delighted with all the wonderful things he was doing." – Luke 13:17
