Primary Scripture: Job 13:15, “Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him”

Big Idea: Trusting God through life’s greatest storms will bring us out the otherside with a stronger trust, and a deeper revelation of God’s character.

Job 13:15 (KJV), “Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him”

Job 1:1, 3b (ESV), “There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job, and that man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil...this man was the greatest of all the people of the east.”

Job 1:8 (ESV), “Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil?”

Ezekiel 14:14 (NIV), “even if these three men—Noah, Daniel and Job—were in it, they could save only themselves by their righteousness”

I. STORMS ARE NOT ALWAYS OUR FAULT

Proverbs 19:3 (ESV), “When a man's folly brings his way to ruin, his heart rages against the Lord.”

Job 1:8 (ESV), “And the Lord said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil?”

II. STORMS BUILD TRUST NOT UNDERSTANDING

Job 13:15 (NIV), “Though he slay me, yet will I hope in him; I will surely defend my ways to his face.”

1 Peter 5:6-7, (ESV), “Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you.

III. STORMS EXPERIENTIALLY REVEAL GOD

Job 38:4 (ESV), ““Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding.”

Job 42:5 (ESV), “I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you;”

John 9:3 (ESV), “Jesus answered, “It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him.
