Text: Luke 2:6-20

Big Idea: Whether we experience the joy of the salvation the angel promised really hinges on how we respond to Christ.

Luke 2:6:10, "While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people.

I. "Oh, Come Let Us Abhor Him!"

II. "Oh, Come Let Us Ignore Him."

Luke 2:7b, "There was no room for them in the inn."

III. "Oh, Come Let Us Adore Him!"

Luke 2:15-20, "When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about." So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told."
